Ever since singer, songwriter, and adventurer Rick Schuler wore his first pair of round glasses at age 13, the murmurs began. It was undeniable, he looked like John Denver, an artist he'd never heard of until that moment. "John Denver was the biggest star in the world, and I didn't have any idea who he was," says Schuler, who quickly discovered that Denver was the guy on the radio whose music he loved. "I was a very shy kid, and John and I kind of became bonded. I taught myself to play guitar and it grew from there."

Nearly four decades later, Schuler has emerged as the leading performer of John Denver's music. His ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH EXPERIENCE® is just that, a true, intimate experience. Schuler performs in front of thousands of Denver fans each year with favorite hits such as "Sunshine on My Shoulders," "Take Me Home Country Roads," "You Fill Up My Senses," and "Thank God I'm a Country Boy."
